CHILD SAFETY

Our club has a zero tolerance of child abuse. We want children to be safe, happy and empowered. We support and respect all children, as well as our volunteers.

All allegations and safety concerns will be treated fully. We accept legal and moral obligations to contact authorities when we are worried about a child's safety, which we follow rigorously.

Our organisation is committed to preventing child abuse and identifying risks early, and removing and reducing these risks. Our club actively encourages cultural diversity and support for children and adults with disabilities.

If you believe a child is at risk, or you know of any irregularities occurring in our club please report immediately to any committee member. Your concern will be acted on immediately and with respect to your confidentiality
